

April Enable E-News

Enable Names Volunteer Award Winners

April is National Volunteer Month. Volunteers who have made extraordinary contributions over the past year are honored throughout the country. At Enable, volunteers play an important role in realizing our mission. We are very grateful for their involvement.

This year, Enable honors the following individuals and groups for their outstanding service:

- Individuals: Anika Jonelagadda, Volunteer at Benford Group Home; Indu Sharma, Volunteer at Benford Group Home; and Suzette Tulloch-Forbes, Volunteer at Lopatcong Group Home
- Organizations: Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority, Inc. from The College of New Jersey; West Windsor Volunteer Fire Company
- School: Notre Dame Catholic High School
- College: Office of Campus Life at Rider University
- Businesses: Oasis Backyard Farms; EisnerAmper

"We thank everyone who volunteers at Enable," said Sharon Copeland, Enable CEO. "Working as individuals or in groups, volunteers donated almost 1,000 hours of service in 2016. Every volunteer matters at Enable! Their commitment to our cause and their selfless contributions make a tremendous difference in the lives of hundreds of seniors and people with disabilities. We are especially grateful to those we are honoring this year for their outstanding work."
